To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as a reference and a recommendation for Simone Gabbay, who has been a colleague, advisor, editor, researcher, and guide in creating numerous books I have written, articles I have had published, and other written and digital communications.

As founder and CEO of the Secretan Center Inc., I have had the privilege of working with Simone for several years. I have found Simone's work ethic to be matchless. She is an outstanding writer, editor, researcher, guide, and teacher. Sometimes I will just call Simone, to gain the benefit of her advice and wisdom. She has vast knowledge in holistic health and nutrition. All writers understand deadlines, but Simone is flawless in achieving hers.

Among our team, Simone is popular and greatly respected—they all love working with her and rely on her input and advice.

If I can provide any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Lance H. K. Secretan
